Daltroff, S.-Goodspeed's Bio.- S. Daltroff, of the firm of Daltroff, Sparks & Oliver, merchants at Wynne, Ark., is an affable, pleasant gentleman, and is now at the head of one of the largest firms in Eastern Arkansas. He began his commercial life as an errand boy, and rose by rapid stages, until he occupied the highest places, and was always a trusted employee. His birth occurred in New Orleans, La., August 13, 1852, and he was the youngest in a family of six children born to the union of S. and Fannie (Seelig) Daltroff, natives of France and Germany, respectively. The parents were married in Mayence, Germany, in 1844, and immediately emigrated to the United States, landing in New Orleans early in 1845. The father started a private school of languages, teaching French, German and Hebrew, and continued this in New Orleans until 1853, when he went to Lake Providence, La. Here he started a general store, but soon discontinued, and proceeded to Vicksburg, where they remained until 1861. From there they went to Memphis, and here the mother died in 1880, and the father June 29, 1881. S. Daltroff, Sr., was very talented, and from the conclusion of the war until his death, taught languages, mostly in Memphis. While in that city, and during the war, he was foreman of the cannon molding of the Confederate army, and when Memphis fell he followed the fortunes of the Confederate cause, and was located at Meridian, Miss. Here he remained until 1864, when he returned to his family at Memphis. S. Daltroff, Jr., was reared principally in Memphis, where he attended the public schools, and later the Commercial College of Leddins, in the same city. After leaving school he began his mercantile career as errand boy, and advanced with this firm until he was made shipping and receiving clerk over the wholesale department. He remained with this firm for seven years, or until 1873, when he engaged with Lowenstein & Bros., as shipping and receiving clerk. At the outbreak of yellow fever in Memphis Mr. Daltroff left this firm, made an extensive trip through the Southern States, and in 1875 came to Wittsburg, Cross County, where he accepted a position with D. Block & Co. He only remained with this firm two months, when he was transported to the first L. N. Block & Co., and remained with the same until April, 1877, when he was admitted as a member of the firm. This partnership lasted until 1879, when it was dissolved, and Mr. Daltroff accepted a position as book keeper for the firm of Block Bros. & Co., remaining with them until 1883, when he became a member of that firm, remaining in this company until 1886, when it was dissolved. He then became senior member of the present firm of Daltroff, Sparks & Oliver, the successors of Block Bros. & Co. This firm almost immediately removed to Wynne, where they started a large store, but this was burned out in 1887. After this they erected a large brick building, covering 290 square feet of floor, which is the finest arranged commercial building in Eastern Arkansas. They carry a stock of goods valued at $15,000, which comprises a full line of dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes, hats and caps, groceries and general plantation supplies. Mr. Daltroff was married, in 1879, to Miss Willie Malone, a daughter of Rev. W. C. Malone, of this county. She died in 1886, leaving three children, all daughters: Frederica, Bettie M. and Willie Florence. In December, 1887, Mr. Daltroff married Miss Rosa Ackerman, a native of Pennsylvania. On his arrival at Wynne Mr. Daltroff erected a fine residence, which, after the death of his wife, in 1886, he sold to his partner, G. N. Sparks. In 1888 he erected another home, which is among the handsomest and best residences in Wynne. Mr. Daltroff is a member of the K. of P., Levesque Lodge No. 53, at Wynne, and he is Chancellor Commander of the same. He is a Royal Arch Mason, is a K. of H. and a K. & L. of H., belonging to John M. Hewitt and Pearl Lodges. He is active in politics, and is a staunch Democrat. --*CC Archive

Duncan was born 12 March 1926 at Hamilton, Alabama, the son of John Wesley and Mona Pounders Duncan. He was raised with seven brothers and sisters: Shelly, Nem, Lillian, Eva, Effie, Nelton, and Travis Wesley. He attended school in Vanndale, Arkansas. J. T. was a "beginning" automobile mechanic at Barwick Ford Company in Wynne and helped "Buff" Buffalo before he entered the Navy. On 26 January 1944, J. T. and Dorcas Fore were married and he was inducted at the Little Rock Induction Center on 4 October 1944. Each inductee was given a choice as to which branch of Service he wanted and J. T. chose the Navy. He was shipped out immediately for boot training in San Diego, California. J. T. remembers that the troop train he was going on to San Diego came through Wynne on their way west! As J. T. says "Oh my, how little I knew about the world when I left Wynne. " After boot training, J. T. was sent to Pearl Harbor about the same time as the Japanese surrendered. His ship carried supplies to Japan and then came back through the Panama Canal to New Orleans where J. T. left the ship to go to Millington, Tennessee Naval Base for discharge. J. T. was discharged 28 March 1946 and returned to Wynne where he was again employed at Barwick Ford Company as an automobile mechanic and auto body repairman for many years. Before retiring, J. T. and his brother, Nelton, owned and operated their own business. During his Naval Career, J. T. received the Victory

When he was ten, the family moved to Arkansas on "Old Man Sid Robinson's" farm which they bought about one year later. He attended the Vandale School with four brothers: Lonnie; Nimmie Lee; Travis Wesley and J. T. plus four sisters: Shelly; Lillian; Eva and Effie. Nelton helped on the farm until he joined the Army. He was inducted 19 October 1942 and spent 18 months overseas in the Pacific. He sailed from San Francisco, California to Hawaii where he received his jungle training. Then he was shipped to Leyte in the Philippines (a 41 day troop ship trip) to join all the other ships assembling for the invasion of Okinawa. Nelton says that campaign was terrible and even after the Americans successfully defeated the Japanese, many troops had to stay on to fight pockets of Japanese who were in the caves and refused to surrender without more battles. Nelton earned the World War II Victory Ribbon; the Good Conduct Medal; the American Theater Ribbon; the AP Theater Ribbon; two Bronze Service Stars; the Philippine Liberation Ribbon plus two more Bronze Stars. He was discharged 26 December 1945 at Camp Chaffee, Arkansas, and returned to his family and to farming. He had one brother, Forrest L. known as Big Buck, and three sisters: Opal, Anna Lou and Mary Ernestine. Little Buck attended school at Levesque and Wynne and was employed at Fisher's Service Station before entering the service. He volunteered for the Army 26 June 1940 and was sent to Fort Bragg, North Carolina for basic training as a member of the 4th Field Artillery Battalion. This was a "pack mule" outfit that trained in all kinds of terrain, mountains, desert, etc. His next assignment was at Fort Sill, Oklahoma where he trained "rookies" for one and one-half years. Dunn spent two years in Central Europe and the Rhineland Battle Areas with General Patton's Army. The heroic efforts of the men who served in these battles are summarized in General Orders No.20 written by W. G. Wyman, Major General, USA, Commanding, Headquarters 71st Infantry Division, APO 36, U.S. Army dated 9 May 1945: "To All Members of the 71st Inf. Division and Attached Units -The war with Germany is ended. Before we turn to a new mission, I wish to express my heartfelt congratulations to the members of this Division for the splendid accomplishment of the many tasks that have been given it. From the day you left your concentration area in Le Harve, in a period of 92 days, you have marched, fighting a large part of the way, a distance of 1,060 miles. You have captured over 80,000 prisoners of war, the bulk of them being captured the hard way.....You were cast through the Siegfried Line to capture Pirmasens, which you did without faltering. Your advance continued to the Rhine where the record of your valor was written in the blood of brave comrades at Speyer and Germersheim. A sudden change in directive transferred the Division from the Seventh to the fast moving Third Army where you were thrown across the Rhine to cover the rear of the XII Corps. East of Hanou you were confronted with hard fighting elements of the 6th SS Mountain Division "Nord", which you destroyed.... On through Fulda and Meiningen constantly opposed by small fighting groups of the enemy which you did not permit to delay you, seizing Coburg and Bayreuth in your path. A transfer to the XX Corps gave us new missions when we swept southeast to Velden, Sulzbach and Amberg. You crossed the Reagen river at Regenstauf, the Danube at Regensburg, the IZar at Landau, the Inn on dams east of Braunau which were secured only after vicious fighting and major labors of our Engineers. We stopped only on our objective, the River Enns, at Steyr, but with patrols thrusting deeply into enemy territory at Waidhofen and Amstetten, the eastern-most point reached by American Ground Forces of any U.S. Army in the European Theater. You have refused to let fatigue, the physical obstacles of mountains and rivers, stop you. The enemy has only delayed you momentarily. You have written a glorious page in the military history of our beloved Country. You are veterans, proven in battle I salute you." Dunn often said, "Anyone who served under Patton had to move and move fast." After five years, four months of active duty, Dunn was discharged from the Army on 31 October 1945 at Jefferson Barracks, Missouri. He received two Bronze Service Stars and the Good Conduct Medal. Dunn's love of military life continued after his discharge when he signed up immediately for the Enlisted Reserves. He returned to Wynne and married Mildred L. Jessen of Mountain View, Arkansas 14 August 1946 and they had two children: Ernest Preston and Peggy .Dunn went back to school under the G.I. Bill and was employed by the Murray Chevrolet Company as Assistant Service Manager, working with Service Manager, C.B. Jarvis. After 17 years, at Murray's, he worked nine years for the Arkansas Highway Department. Dunn was instrumental in getting a National Guard Unit in Wynne. The Unit was organized 29 January 1947 as a Service Battery of the 445th Field Artillery Battalion. A total of 13 men initially enrolled including 1st Lieutenants Howard H. Ca11ahan and Floyd A. Hunter, First Sergeant Dunn, Staff Sergeant Warren L. Chowning and Privates Curtis G. Belford, Gene M. Chowning, Ralph E. Doss, George M. Dunn, Erskine B. Faulkner, William D. Gordon, John z. Hibbetts, David L. South and Wendell Wa11in. Dunn kept his rank of First Sergeant until his retirement 18 June 1968 with 28 years of continuous military service. His wife, Mildred, has a scrapbook of memoirs of these years. The Wynne Unit was federalized in September 1955 and sent to Little Rock to serve in the Central High School integration. Dunn died 13 June 1992 and was buried at Cogbill Cemetery in Wynne.
