Ganley, William B: 17 Mar 1827 IN New Jersey, -CC Family-

Ganley, William-Goodspeed's Bio- William Ganley was a son of James Ganley, who was born in Ireland and emigrated to this country soon after his marriage, locating in New Jersey, about five miles below Trenton, on the Delaware River; afterward he moved to Philadelphia, where he died about 1833. His wife, formerly Bridget Doane, died in St. Louis from the cholera, as did several of the children. They reared a family of eleven children, of whom William, our subject, was the seventh. The latter was born in New Jersey, March 17, 1827, and was reared in that State until about eighteen years of age, when he left home and came west, engaging in rafting lumber down the Mississippi from Minnesota to St. Louis. In this occupation he continued for eleven years, being the first man to take a raft of pine lumber from Minnesota to that city between the points mentioned, an industry that has now grown to one of considerable proportions. He then started for California, but passing through Cross County, Ark., became interested in the beauty of the country and stopped here, and has since made it his home. When first coming to this county Mr. Ganley embarked in the lumber business and afterward went to farming, in which he is still interested. He was married about 1852, to Martha Miles, a native of Alabama, who died in 1862, leaving five children, one of whom only is living, Bridget, still at home. Mr. Ganley now owns 600 acres of land, with 100 acres under cultivation, located near the Tyronza River; he has good buildings and a large orchard. He is a Catholic in religion and a Democrat in politics. --*CC Archive

Graham, John M., Sr.-Goodspeed's Bio.-b.Aug.31,1847 d.May 14,1919-Allen-Graham Cem., Cross Co., Ark.-He always lived a correct life and was one of the leading members of the Second Presbyterian Church in Memphis. John Graham was reared to farm labor and attended the common schools at [p.352] home until 1858, when he attended school at Greensboro, N. C. Subsequently he was under the instruction of a teacher at a private school and remained there until the breaking out of the late war. In 1863, when only sixteen years of age, he enlisted in Company A, McGee's regiment cavalry, and for a year operated in Eastern Arkansas. In 1864 he joined Gen. Price in his Missouri raid, was in the battle of Pilot Knob and in all the battles until West Port, when, holding the field until Price could escape with the wagon train, our subject was captured, taken to Kansas City and later to Fort Leavenworth, where he was held in captivity, and after some time was removed to Camp Morton, Ind., and here retained until the close of the war, being released about June 1. He immediately started for home and made the journey from Memphis on foot. He at once took charge of his father's farm. In 1866 he went to Mebaneville school, remained there one year and then came home, residing with his parents for one year, From there he removed to the bottoms, engaged in agricultural pursuits for himself and there remained three years. Following this he took charge of the old homestead, while his father went to Memphis, and tilled the soil for five years, after which his father gave him an interest in the place, on which he erected a dwelling and there resided. At the time of the father's death he bought out the heirs and moved back to the old homestead. Since then he has cleared about sixty acres and now has 500 in a fine state of cultivation, and on another tract near by he has sixty acres under cultivation. He moved his gin to the home place, has a good dwelling, orchard and is considered one of the best farmers in the county. He is quite extensively engaged in stock raising, principally mules, and has been very successful at this, raising some of the largest and finest mules ever seen in the State, and as good as any from Kentucky or in fact, any State. He seeds down a large part of his farm to improve and fertilize the soil. He raises large crops of cotton and corn and is a practical, as well as a scientific farmer. His farm embraces about 600 acres under cultivation, lying on the west slope of Crowley's Ridge, and presents a magnificent view, for, from his residence, nearly every acre is spread out like a picture before the eye. He was married in December, 1870, to Miss Jennie Allen, a daughter of Abijah Allen, one of the early settlers and prominent farmers of St. Francis County. Eight children were the result of this union: Mary C., Charles C. (died at the age of three years), John M., Abijah Allen (died at the age of three weeks), Jennie Clay, Willie Vernon (died at the age of three years), Carey Osceola and James Franklin. Mrs. Graham is a member of the Presbyterian Church. In 1888 Mr. Graham joined with his partners in the large mercantile firm at Wynne. He is the leading spirit in all movements pertaining to the good of the country, and is not only a leading farmer, but is a member of the leading commercial firm in Cross County. Obit-John Graham of Cross County Dead: The funeral of John Graham, who died at his home near Wynne, on Wednesday, May 14, 1919, took place on Thursday, with interment in the Allen cemetery in the north end of the county, services conducted by Rev. Williams of the Presbyterian church of Wynne assisted by Rev. Galloway of the Methodist church of the same place. Mr. Graham was born about 72 years ago in North Carolina, coming to Cross County with his parents when he was seven years of age, and lived on the same farm until his death. Mr. Graham served in the Civil war, and was one of the most substantial men in Cross County. He is survived by two sons, John Graham Jr., and James Graham, both of Wynne, and two daughters, Mrs. J. L. Hare and Miss Kate Graham of Wynne. Forrest City Times Herald May 16, 1919. --*CC Archive-Per Brenda Huntley-John Graham was a successful farmer and a member of the firm of Smith, Graham and Jones, merchants of Wynne, Arkansas in Cross County. He was born in North Carolina, the son of C. C. and Mary E. Graham. He and his family came to this area in 1854. In 1863, John, when only 16 years old, enlisted in the Confederate Army, Company A of McGehee's Calvary Regiment. He was captured by the enemy in 1864 and remained a prisoner until the end of the war.*CC Bank Vet.Memorial-Wife:-Jennie E-Wynne, Cross, Arkansas -Oct 1847-North Carolina-Head-1900 Census-Wife:-Jennie-Smith, Cross, Arkansas-abt 1848-North Carolina-Self (Head)-1880 Census--Wynne, Cross, Arkansas-1848-North Carolina-Head-1910 Census Graham, John Mebane B: 19 Jun 1875 IN Arkansas, Usa D: 8 Nov 1938 IN Wynne, Cross, Arkansas, -CC Family-

Griffin, Harold Brooks "Doc" , Dr. May 8, 1914, Vanndale Ar - May 6, 2011 Denton County Texas- Dr. Harold Brooks Griffin passed away on May 6, 2011. He was born on May 8, 1914 to Dr. James Leroy and Myrtle Elizabeth Shaver Griffin in Vanndale, Arkansas. He was one of seven children: Elizabeth, J.L., Harold, James, David, Richard, and John.After graduating as Valedictorian of his high school senior class he attended undergraduate schools at Memphis State University and Arkansas State University at Jonesboro. He then entered medical school at the University of Arkansas at Little Rock. Once more he graduated as Valedictorian of his class, and was awarded the Vinsonhaler Award for Outstanding Student for Four Years. That was one of the proudest achievements of his life.He spent his 2-year Internship at Harris Hospital in Ft. Worth where he met his future father-in-law, Mr. J. Clyde Jones, a patient there. Mr. Jones and his wife, Adelaide, introduced Harold to their daughter, also Adelaide, during a holiday trip home from her university. Several years later their marriage plans were interrupted by World War II. Harold entered the Army Air Corps as a Flight Surgeon and served on the island of Saipan in the South Pacific. When he returned to Ft. Worth, he married Adelaide Jones on June 15, 1946. Harold (affectionately known as "Doc") served his Residency at John Sealy Hospital in Galveston for 3 years. He opened medical practices in El Paso and Ft. Worth, and then joined the medical staff at the V. A. Center in Bonham, Texas, in 1956 where he eventually served as Chief of Internal Medicine. When he retired in 1974, Harold and Adelaide returned to the Jones family home in Ft. Worth and lived there till 2000. At that point they moved to the Cornerstone Retirement Community in Texarkana, Texas, and remained until 2007 when his wife passed away. After that, he moved to the Lake Forest Good Samaritan Village in Denton, Texas, until his death. Harold is predeceased by his parents, his siblings, Elizabeth, J.L., James, David, and Richard, and his wife, Adelaide. He is survived by his children H. Brooks Griffin and Adelaide Griffin, brother John and his wife, Dorothy, sisters-in-law Nancy Griffin and Vickie Griffin, as well as numerous nieces and nephews. Services will be held in the chapel at Williams Memorial United Methodist Church, 4000 Moores Lane, Texarkana, Texas, on Monday, May 9, 2011 at 11:00 a.m. Pastor Danny Wayman will officiate. Griffin, Hollin "Hol" 11463460 b. unknown d. unknown-Cogbill Cem.-Picture/Bio-Hollin Griffin's marker was donated by Fannie Griffin, wife of James W. Griffin. Marker may have been intended to be re-ingraved. Information per Louise Griffin, daughter of James W. and Fannie Griffin, whose graves are to the right of Hollin's grave. There were 8 plots that James W. Griffin purchased for his Family plot in the 1920's. Only 3 were ever used. Most of his children are buried in Crittenden Mem.Park in Marion, AR. Hollin Griffin had 2 wives, I don't know where either are buried. He did have children, unknown to me. He was a brother to James W. Griffin and a fond memory as Uncle 'Holl' to Louise Griffin Sanders who supplied this info. Per KathyRobins
