Taylor, Thomas Burdette --*CC Bank Vet.Memorial Bio- Thomas Burdette {T .B. ) Taylor was born 27 January 1921 at Cardwell, Missouri (the mail route) but actually lived in Arkansas. His parents were William Cornelius and Mary Alice Duncan Taylor. He was raised with brothers and sisters: Lilbourn; Morris; Lucille; Fannie and Arletta. T .B. graduated at Childress High School on Route 1, Monette, Arkansas, in May 1941. Prior to that however, T .B. and Vona Mae Meachem were married secretly on 2 April 1941. He farmed until he entered military service. T .B. was inducted into the Army 23 January 1943 at Little Rock, Arkansas. His basic training was followed by assignments as a light truck driver and radio operator as a PFC. Upon promotion to T/5, T.B.'s specialties were

as a rifleman and light truck driver. He served with the 41st AAA Bn. for ten months in France, Belgium, Holland and Germany (the Central Europe -Rhineland Campaigns.) On 20 December 1945, T .B. was discharged at Jefferson Barracks, Missouri. His decorations and citations included two Bronze Stars and the Good Conduct Medal. He is entitled to wear the American Theater Campaign Ribbon; the European African Middle Eastern Theater Campaign Ribbon; one Overseas Service Bar and the Victory Ribbon. He, also, received the following letter from President Harry Truman: "Thomas B. Taylor - To you who answered the call of your country and served in Armed Forces to bring about the total defeat of the enemy, I extend the heartfelt thanks of a grateful Nation. As one of the Nation's finest, you undertook the most severe task one can be called upon to perform. Because you demonstrated the fortitude, resourcefulness and calm judgment necessary to carry out that task, we now look to you for leadership and example in further exalting our country in peace. (signed) Harry S. Truman -The White House" The only story T. B. has shared with Vona is that one night while on the Ebbe the end of the Battle of the Bulge, he volunteered to stand guard duty. When he returned to where his bedroll had been left, that had disappeared and the entire corner of the building where he usually slept had been shelled. T. B. and Vona have five daughters: Tommye; Kathy; Kaye; Deborah and Diane. He is an avid quail hunter and is known for his woodworking and metal work.-23 Feb 2003-NE Arkansas Town Crier-Monday, 03 Mar 2003--*CC Archive

Teague was born 13 August 1895 in Attala County, Mississippi. At the tender age of twelve he was taught to be a watchmaker and as a young man he moved to Wynne with his wife, Thelma Evans Teague. He became the Official Railroad Watch Inspector and was owner of "A. P. Teague Jeweler" at a time when Wynne was the crossroad of two major railroads It was also a time when the accuracy of railroad watches was of great concern. His two daughters Mary Evans "May" Teague and Allane Teague Holley grew up in Wynne. He died here on 24 March 1976 and was buried in Cogbill Cemetery beside his wife.. He was 22 years old and working as a watchmaker when he entered the Army on 21 September 1917 and served with the 114th Engineers until his discharge on 20 May 1919 at Camp Stewart, Virginia. Part of his training was at Camp Beauregard in Alexander, Louisiana. Later his group was transported to Brest, France aboard the USS Wilhelminia. On 7 July 1918 he was awarded the Gold Service Chevron. One story he repeated to his daughter was about a time when he and a friend were in an Ammo Bunker called "The Magazine. " He turned around to see the friend carelessly starting to strike a match. This was vivid memory that never faded. "May" Teague has many "Army" pictures and also has his side-arm and his field desk. From a booklet in Allen's papers we have taken the following excerpts about the 114-th. "The 114-th Engineers, organized in August 1917, as the Sapper Regiment of the 39th Division, was composed of National Guard Troops from Arkansas, Louisiana and Mississippi and completed with troops coming from the selective draft. The Regiment was in training at the divisional camp, Camp Beauregard, Louisiana, from August 1917 to July 1918. It was ordered overseas early in July, and sailed for France on the USS Wilhelmina landing at Brest, September 3rd. In those days Brest was not what it is now and the outfit had a hard battle of it in the so-called "Rest" Camp, living in pup-tents and furnishing daily over 1000 men for various details which worked from 6 am to 7 pm, and sustained only on reserve war rations. From Brest the Regiment went to its training area at Charost, Cher, some 72 hours in French box cars, 40 men to the car, being required for this journey. It was here the Regiment lost 22 men by Spanish Influenza and where some fifty were left behind suffering from that malady when the Regiment departed for the Front on October 1st. They detrained at Clermon-en-Argonne October 3, 1918. From there it went to the trenches. On arriving in the Advance Zone, the Regiment took over the construction and maintenance of 30 kilos of roads, over which supplies and troops of the First Army were moved from the railheads to the front. Here they remained during the Argonne-Meuse offensive, going forward with the victorious troops. They were cited as being the best Engineer Regiment operating in that Army area. Now came the final thrust of The Argonne-Muese offensive, bringing with it added labor and hardships on the Engineer troops, who were now asked to keep open for heavy traffic second and third class roads. Bridges which had heretofore carried only five tons had to carry ten and fifteen. The second wave went over to the top in trucks trying in vain to overtake the flying Dutchmen. As a result the Engineers did double and even treble duty on the roads, for weeks at a time. The Armistice brought no rest to the Regiment, as the troops of the First Army must return and supplies go in over the roads now being taken care of by this group. March 31st Orders were issued transferring for embarkation to the United States. It was during this trip to the Port of Brest where the men experience what they had longed hoped for -their last meeting with the "French Pullmans". It took 46 continuous hours to make the trip. At Brest the troops sailed home on the Koenigen Von Nerterlander, the USS Nebraska and the USS Vermont. Upon arriving at Newport News, the train was ordered to Camp Hill, Virginia, to be sent from there to various demobilization centers. "

Wallace graduated with High Honors and his Platoon 319 was named the Regimental Honor Platoon. He was assigned to Okinawa and remained there for some time being flown back and forth to Vietnam where he helped build the Marine Base in Vietnam. He drafted the blue prints and listed all materials needed to build the base. He went on to the front lines in Vietnam with his squad and served there till his enlistment was over. When he was discharged 16 February 1967, he had earned the National Defense Service Medal, the Vietnam Service Medal with two Stars, the Vietnam Campaign Medal with Device, the Rifle Marksmanship Badge and the Good Conduct Medal. Thomas, William H. 8194592 b.Jan.13,1923 d.Apr.22,1945-Manila American Cemetery and Memorial -Manila-Manila City, Philippines-Cross Co. Veteran Bio: William H. Thomas was born between 13 January 1923 to John and Leva Thomas of Fair Oaks, Arkansas. He was one of nine children and grew up in the Wynne-Fair Oaks area. Received his early education in local schools and later farmed with his father in this community. Pfc. Thomas joined the Army on 22 April 1944 at Camp Robinson, Arkansas. The year before he has been rejected for valvular heart disease. He was trained as an Automatic Rifleman. He died 22 April 1945 on Zambales Mountain on Luzon in a fierce battle with the Japanese and was buried in the American Battle Monuments Cemetery, Philippine Islands, Manila. He was 22 years old. He was posthumously awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor. The medal and citation were handed to his parents. From an article printed in the 9 August 1945 issue of the Wynne Progress we have the details of his bravery and death: The official citation reads: "Private First Class William H. Thomas, for conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity, above and beyond the call of duty, in action with the enemy in the Zambales Mountains, Luzon, Philippine Islands on April 22, 1945. Pvt. Thomas was a member of the leading squad of Company B, 149 Infantry, which was attacking along a narrow wooded ridge. The enemy was strongly entrenched in camouflaged emplacements on the hill beyond. The enemy directed heavy fire on the attacking riflemen and hurled explosive charges from their positions on the hill. Pvt. Thomas, an automatic rifleman, was mortally wounded by one of these charges, which blew off both his legs below the knees. He refused medical aid and evacuation and continued to fire at the enemy until his weapon was put out of action by an enemy bullet. Still refusing aid, he threw his last two grenades. Pvt. Thomas destroyed three of the enemy after he had received his fatal wounds. His effective fire on the enemy prevented the repulse of the platoon and assured the capture of the position. His courage and heroic devotion to duty provide a lasting inspiration for his comrades." In this same article, his platoon leader, 1st Lt. Frank C. Jackson, his platoon sergeant, Tech. Sgt. Wesley G. Brandt and the medic who helped him, Tech. 4th Herman Foreman filled in more details. Pvt. Thomas was one of the advance squad making their way up through rough and heavily wooded terrain where observation was difficult. Heavy enemy fire failed to halt the platoon's advance, and the leading Doughboys had almost reached the top of the ridge when the frantic enemy began hurling satchel charges down on the attacking riflemen. One of the satchel charges landed between Pvt. Thomas' legs as he lay sprawled flat firing his BAR into the enemy position. The terrific blast tore off both his legs below the knees. In almost the same second that he screamed, he realized that maximum firepower from his position was essential to preventing a disastrous withdrawal of his comrades. Refusing medical aid and evacuation which was necessary to save his life, Pvt. Thomas continued to fire his weapon, killing at least three of the enemy after he lost his legs. Even after his automatic rifle was smashed by an enemy bullet disabling his BAR, he still refused medical aid and threw his two remaining grenades into the enemy positions. Only then did he allow the medic to assist him with morphine and tourniquets. He died in a battalion aid station not far from the front lines, despite 11 plasma transfusions. Beside the Congressional Medal of Honor, an army transport ship, The Private William H. Thomas was commissioned in his honor at Pier 39, South Seattle Port Embarkation. This ship was moored in the Hudson River Reserve Fleet until 1970.

Tappen in command.Children: One child, Hattie L., born to Dr, and Mrs. Van Patten:Goodspeed's: During the war between the States, Dr. Van Patten was surgeon of the Thirteenth Arkansas Volunteer Infantry, Col. Tappen in command. He was afterward promoted to brigade-surgeon, and subsequently to the position of division-surgeon. For a short period he served as brigade-surgeon for Old Frank Cheatam, and was for two years in the Trans-Mississippi Department, under Gen. L. Polk, in Tennessee, Kentucky, Missouri and Mississippi, also being surgeon of Fort Pillow, in 1861. He was present at the battle of Shiloh, and was made division-surgeon by Gen. Polk on the battlefield, in the presence of Albert Sidney Johnston and Beauregard. He was obliged to resign before the war closed, on account of nervous prostration. Dr. Van Patten's children have inherited his own studious propensities, and have been endowed by nature with unusual capabilities. Eva Lillian graduated in higher mathematics at the age of fourteen years, under Prof. D. L. Thompson, of Wittsburg, the course extending through Calculus. After thus having her reasoning powers developed far beyond the height attained by even some of the most brilliant women of our country, in order to give her that proficiency in language, literature and the fine arts, which she had already attained in mathematics, and understanding that a harmonious development of all the faculties is requisite to attain perfect personal and intellectual culture, Dr. Van Patten wisely sent her to Notre Dame, Ind., to the female school there, made famous the world over by the Sisters of Mercy. After having well improved the opportunities afforded her she again returned to her home an even more devoted student than before. During her leisure hours she was found poring over the works of Tyndall, Huxley and Darwin, drinking in the many good things in their writings and criticising contradictory statements appearing on different pages. In mathematics, literature, language, art and every other branch, her mind searched eagerly for knowledge, and she daily meditated on many of the great questions which have from remote ages vexed and perplexed the minds of our greatest thinkers. She was the constant companion of her father, and with him discussed all questions. Her greatness of heart was unlimited, and she had charity for the faults of all. Such women are priceless gems, but her physical constitution could not stand the draft on her intellect, and paralysis of the brain caused her death. Such an affliction is certainly to be lamented by more than her family, and it is to be hoped her young soul, freed from its incumbrance of clay, can see, without effort into all the mysteries she was continually investigating here. Hattie L., now the wife of Eugene Parrish, of Paragould, Ark., was on the point of graduating from Notre Dame, when the breaking out of diphtheria caused her sudden return home, and prevented her receiving a diploma. Her paintings and her music show the touch of an artist. She paints from nature with absolute perfection, and her portrait gems, which have been examined by many, are pronounced worthy of an artist of national reputation. She is an excellent English scholar, and proficient in Latin, French and German. She was married November 2, 1889. 'Philip Van Patten, M. D.' So reads the sign that noisily swings to and fro on its rusty hinges, attracting the passers-by on one of the principal streets of Forrest City. The busy little notice is given only a momentary thought by its many readers, but the reputation of him whom it represents, an efficient and popular physician, will survive him many years. Born in Schenectady County, N. Y., in 1827, Dr. Van Patten's boyhood days were passed in carving his name in wonderful designs on his desk and making pictures, much to the delight of his schoolmates, but aside from all his fun, he was a good scholar, and won the approbation and affection of his teachers.- Paul V. Isbell Added: Dec. 15, 2009-Age 26, of Poinsett Co., Ark., Married Nov.22,1853 Independence Co., Ark. to Mary E.Smith, age 22, of Independence Co., Ark.-Per 1880 Census:Wittsburg, Ark.-Physician age 53; Wife Mary E. age 49;Children:Hattie C. age 18, Eva Lillian age 15, Stepson:Robert M. Jun. 2, 1911- Vanndale Cem.- Vann, John M.-Text: Born: Jul.5, 1845 Died:Jun.2,1911 Buried:Vanndale Cemetery, Vanndale, Ark-Tstone- John M. Vann went to Arkansas with his parents in 1850, when he was only five years of age, and his home was always within a few miles of the spot selected by his father, Renselear Vann, for a home when he went from Fayette County, Tenn., to Cross County (then St. Francis), Ark. Just as he was preparing to go away to school the war came on, and John, like many other boys, felt the call of duty and made a brave young soldier. He was only nineteen when the "war closed. He enlisted in Company A, McGehee's Regiment, and served nearly four years. Mr. Vann engaged in business in 1868 and continued the life of a merchant-farmer for forty-five years. He was successful and enjoyed the fullest confidence of a loyal line of customers, who came to him for advice and counsel even in most intimate and private matters. The statesman sought his advice; the politician begged his support, because a multitude followed when it became known that the candidate would have the support of J. M. Vann; the widow trusted him; the broken-hearted confided in him; the preacher leaned upon him. He never sought a crowd, but once in it he was the life of it. He loved a clean story and was an artist in telling one. He was married to Miss Ida Hare, daughter of Rev. Thomas Hare, and their children were Claude, Thomas, and Bessie. The CONFEDERATE VETERAN was always read, reread, and carefully filed away. It is now read with great interest by his children and grandchildren. ."- Confederate Veteran Magazine-v.28-p.29-33-Paul V. Isbell- Arkansas Confederate Pensions Surname: Vann Given Name: J. M. Friday, February 2, 1951 Retired Merchant Is Called By Death W. D. Varley, an Earle resident for almost 40 years died at his home at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon. He was 75 and a retired grocer. Services were held at 2 Monday afternoon at the Earle Methodist Church with Rev. L. F. Lafevers officiating, assisted by Rev. Ben C. Few of Parkin. Burial was in Cogbill Cemetery at Wynne. Born in Marietta, Ohio, Mr. Varley came to Earle in 1912 and entered the grocery business in what was then called New Earle. He owned and operated several businesses of this nature and had always been associated with this line of work until his retirement in 1947. Mr. Varley was civic minded and took prominent part in all worth-while programs of the town until ill health forced him to curtail his activities. He was a Past Master of the Crittenden County Lodge F. & A. M., a member of the Board of Stewards of the Methodist Church and had at one time served for 25 consecutive years as Superintendent of the Sunday School. He also served as Mayor of Earle and sponsored many civic projects. He was the instigator of the move to close business houses in Earle during summer months, a custom that is still observed. Mr.

Varley passed away quietly having returned from town and was sitting in a chair relaxing and apparently died in his sleep. A member of the family, Mrs. M. M. Thompson, found him and summoned help. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Dorothy Christman Varley, and a brother J.
