

same hour and the same place on Sunday, May 17. The speaker was Dean G.R. Turrentine of Arkansas Polytechnic College, Russellville. His subject was "Adventures in Genealogy." There were about fifty in attendance.

Several new members have been added this year. Most of the members for last year have sent in their renewals. Those who have not are requested to send theirs at their earliest convenience. They should be sent to B. A. Hardy, Little Rock University, Little Rock, Arkansas.

This issue contains one historic document of the Civil War. Earlier issues have contained others. With the nearer approach of the anniversary, others will be published. If any of the members have material that might be suitable for publication, they are requested to call it to the attention of the editor.
