

The Washington County Flashback, Volume X, Number 3, is a bulletin of 66 pages. It has a number of illustrations. Among the features are: The William and John Thaddeus Shelton Families; Chasing Guerrillas in Arkansas; An Outstanding Gun Collection; Harvey Doak Wood - A Pioneer Washington County Surgeon. The editor is W. J. Lemke. The date of this issue is July, 1960.

---

The Crawford County Heritage, Volume III, Number 4, April, 1960, contains 31 pages. Some features are: Jesse Turner, Lawyer and Scholar; The Indian Territory 1861-1865. Mrs. Hugh Park is the editor.

---

The Pope County Arkansas Valley Historical Papers, Number 22, July, 1960, is a bulletin of 9 pages. It is taken up entirely with one article: Ninety Years of Public Schools in Pope County. The author is N. H. Bell, a retired Pope County school supervisor. The editor is G. R. Turrentine.

---

The Arkansas County Grand Prairie Historical Bulletin, Volume III, Number 1, July, 1960, is a bulletin of 23 pages. Some features are: First Christian Church, Stuttgart, Arkansas, 1889-1897; Arkansas Constitutions and Interest Rates; Arkansas' Rome. Boyd W. Johnson is editor.

---

The Social Committee of the P. C. H. S. merits especial recognition. For the past four years Mrs. Booker Worthen, Mrs. J. Fletcher Miller and Mrs. George Rose Smith have served in this capacity. They have never failed to be on hand with an abundance of refreshments and they have never requested to be relieved of their duties. The membership is greatly indebted to them.

---

Have you preserved your Quarterlies and your bulletins since we began publication eight years ago? If so, you have quite a collection of material on local history. The Quarterlies alone make a bound volume of about five hundred pages. If you have copies that you do not care to keep, please return them to the editor, J. H. Atkinson, 210 Palm Street, Little Rock. We frequently have calls for back numbers.

---

Many have commented on the beautiful job of typing and mimeographing that has been done on our bulletin in each of the last several issues. Credit for the typing goes to Mrs. H. D. Pyron, Route 2, Rolla, Missouri. The mimeographing is done in the business office of the Little Rock University. We are deeply indebted to both.

---