

- Mar. 19 Anthony Montgomery, 45, to Mary Robertson, 35, (both colored) by W. G. Williams, M. G. (215)
- Mar. 21 John Burke, 24, Kilrash Clair County, Ireland, to Huldah A. Sweeten, 15; by A. B. Randall, Chaplain 54th Regt. (226)
- Mar. 21 Robert W. Wright, 23, Louisiana, to _____ A. Sweeten, 15, witnesses, Thomas Adams and Polly Goodman; by A. B. Randall, Chaplain, 54th Regiment. (225)
- April 2 Thomas H. Walker to Amanda Cribbs; by J. E. Caldwell, M. G. (222)
- Dec. 22 James Clark, 26, to May J. Neal, 18; by Thomas R. Welch, M. Presbyterian Church. (223)

This concludes our publication of marriage records of Pulaski County. All available records have been published from 1819 to 1866.

The Southern Historical Association held its Twenty-Sixth Annual Meeting at Tulsa, Oklahoma, November 10, 11 and 12, 1960. Dr. Walter Brown of the University of Arkansas presided at one of the Saturday morning sessions. The president, William B. Hesseltine, was formerly a member of the faculty of the University of Arkansas. The Association publishes the Journal of Southern History. Headquarters were at the Mayo Hotel.

Four members of the P. C. H. S. have passed away in the course of this year. They were Mr. Theo Treadway, Mrs. Irene Adams Witz, Mr. C. S. Harley, and Mr. W. J. Tharp. At our October meeting the president asked the group to stand in tribute to the memory of these.

Dr. John L. Ferguson, Executive Secretary of the Arkansas History Commission, issued Volume I, Number 1 of News Notes from his office in the Old State House on October 1. The release will be issued monthly.

It has been announced by the Executive Committee of the Arkansas Historical Association that the annual meeting next year will be held at Camden. It will be in the spring but the date has not yet been announced.

Interest continues to grow in the organization of new county historical societies. The most recent proposal comes from a group at Pine Bluff for a Jefferson County Historical Society.
