The Twentieth Annual Meeting of the American Association for State and Local History convened at Iowa City, Iowa, August 31 to September 3, 1960. Headquarters were at the Centennial Building, State Historical Society of Iowa. The four days were spent in conferences, meetings, luncheons, dinners, receptions, and historic tours. Of especial interest was the tour of the seven Amana Villages and the visit to Herbert Hoover's birthplace. Among outstanding historians present were, Clifford Lord, of Columbia University, president of the Association, and Clement M. Silvestro, Editor of History News.
