Tombstone-Obituary: 09/09/26A hurried trip by automobile to a Memphis hospital by the father, conveying his wounded son, Dorris Aldridge, aged 12, who had been accidentally wounded by the latter's cousin, failed to save the youth's life, and he died last Friday night, Sep.3,1926. The funeral was held with burial in Macedonia cemetery. The boy was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom J. Aldridge, and lived 16 miles north of here, near Pine Tree. While hunting on last Friday he stepped into the line of fire of his cousin, Billy Adams, aged 14, just as the latter pulled the trigger on a shot gun. The charge struck the younger boy in the back. The boy is survived by his parents, three sisters and a small brother. W. H. Aldridge, of this city, is the grand uncle.

She loved God first, her family next, her church family, her chosen family at the Senior Citizen's Center, and her special Happy Quilter's Family (both past and present), with all her heart. She had a passion for those who served and spent her days with the Happy Quilter's making patriotic lap quilts for service men and women, and quilts for those who were ill, had lost their homes to fire, or those who needed an extra dose of love that they could hold in their hands. Marie was fondly known as Granny by many related only my heart and she will be sorely missed. If you knew her, please know that she loved you and she has gone ahead to greet you when you arrive. She always had enough love and laughter to go around and there was always room for one more. Tombstone with Howard-Picture-Obituary: Mrs. Alice Haynes of Colt, Arkansas, passed away Tuesday, July 3, 2012, at her home in Colt, AR. Mrs. Haynes was born November 24, 1925, and lived in the Pinetree Community all her life. She was preceded in death by parents Joe Luallen and Mamie Blanch Jackson Neill; husband Alton Howard "Jack" Haynes; brothers William Harold Sr., Justin Jackson, and Bobby Basil; sister Violet Lorene Neill Adams; nephew Coy Nathan Adams; and, cousin Frances Cora Jackson Cook. Mrs. Haynes is survived by nieces Linda Sue Neill Bauldry of New Smyrna Beach, Florida, and Ruth Ann Neill Rogers of Statesboro, Georgia; nephews William Harold "Bill" Neill Jr. of College Station, Texas, and Henry Gaylon Adams of St. Ann, Missouri; cousin-by-marriage Vernon Cook of Pinetree, Arkansas; niece-by-marriage Marie Hillyard Adams of Searcy, Arkansas; and, several great nieces and nephews. As a teenager and young woman, Alice eagerly awaited letters from her three brothers, all of whom served in the U.S. Army during World War II. In their absence, she helped her parents on the farm as best she could. Alice was a graduate of Forrest City High School. Throughout her adult life, she was known for her home-making and sewing skills, her cooking, and her love of vegetable and flower gardening. An employee of Warwick and then Sanyo Industries, she retired to care for husband Jack. Alice was a loving wife, sister, daughter, and aunt; and, she cared for her mother and husband faithfully during their final illnesses. Alice valued her friends in the community and friends from her work at Warwick and Sanyo. In her later years, she made new friends while working part-time at Wilkins Dress Shop in Colt; and, she loved to purchase new dresses and accessories at the shop. Alice rediscovered her love of dancing at Patterson and Wynne Senior Citizen Clubs where she enjoyed many evenings of socializing. Burial was in Barnishaw Cemetery in Pinetree. Funeral arrangements were by Kernolde Funeral Home.

Tombstone-Goodspeed's Biography: William H. Higgins was born in St. Francis County, Ark., in 1844, a son of Jeremiah and Martha Higgins, natives of Indiana and Arkansas respectively. He passed his boyhood days in much the same manner as other farmer lads, receiving such advantages for an education as could be obtained from the meager facilities of the district. His father moved to Texas in 1853, but returned after a residence there of two years. Young William began fighting life's battle at the age of twenty-three, choosing the occupation of farming, which he has since continued. He was married in 1867, to Mary E. Saratt, who died in 1879, leaving seven children: Martha A., Mary J., Melissa E., Josephine, Melinda C., Auazablin and Rosie L. Mr. Higgins was married in 1883 to Martha A. Ellis, who was also called from earth three years later, having borne one child: Elsie J. For his third and present wife, Mr. Higgins married Martha J. Elliott, an estimable lady of culture and refinement. Mr. Higgins enlisted in the Confederate army in 1861, in Company H, Fortieth Tennessee Regiment, participating in the battles of Island No. 10, Dalton (Ga.), Allatoona and Resaca. At the first-named engagement he was captured and removed to Springfield (Camp Butler), Ill., and at the battle of Allatoona, again taken prisoner and sent to Camp Chase, Ohio, remaining in prison seven and a half months. He was exchanged at Richmond (Va.) and released on parole, but before this term expired the final surrender took place. After the war Mr. Higgins returned home, where he resumed his occupation of farming, and now owns 424 acres, with 110 cleared and improved. He is also successfully engaged in stock raising. He is a member of the Wheel, and Alliance. His views politically are Democratic, and in religious faith he is a Methodist. He is a leader, not a follower, in all public enterprises, to which he contributes liberally, and under his able and efficient management the success of any movement largely is assured. Mrs. Higgins is a member of the Baptist Church. Obituary-Died on the morning of October 11, 1897, at 4:30 o'clock, William H. Higgins, at his residence in L'Anguille township. Deceased was 53 years of age last March. He was well known through the country, and beloved and honored by all who knew him. He is survived by a wife and seven grown daughters.-10-15-1897 FORREST CITY TIMES

Tombstone with Pauline-Pfc. U. S. Army WW II-Obituary: Lee Hodges, 81, of Wynne passed away Friday, January 2, 2009 in Jonesboro. He was preceded in death by his parents, Velmer "Tuff" Lee Hodges and Dovie Mae Faulk Hodges and his daughter, Rita Mae Hodges Boeckmann. Private Thomas Lee Hodges served eighteen months in the U. S. Army's 31st Field Artillery Battalion. He drove a 2 ½ ton truck transporting supplies, equipment and personnel over all types of terrain in Seoul, Korea. Following an honorable discharge from the Army on October 7, 1947, he returned to Cross County and continued farming with his father. Lee married his wife, Pauline on August 6, 1949. They have lived in the one and only home which he built on the family farm. Of course, this home has seen several additions as their three children entered this world. Lee believed that each child should have his/her own bedroom; this greatly decreased the fussing and fighting among the kids at bedtime. Lee certainly cherished his land and livestock, especially his milk cow. Some folks accused him of having green blood, John Deere green that is. Believing that an item could serve more than one specific purpose, he has been seen retrieving materials from the scrap metal pile to build a wood splitter. Lee was truly God's steward. Highly respected in the community for his integrity of character, generosity toward his neighbors, selflessness, and mechanical abilities, he instilled these same values in his children. Passionate about conservative politics, the leaders of our State and Nation could learn a great deal from Lee's insightful analysis and commonsense approach to problem solving. Survivors are his wife of 59 years, Pauline Smith Hodges of the home; his son, Thomas Matt Hodges of Wynne; daughter, Ellen Marie Hodges of Little Rock; three grandchildren and two great grandchildren. Services will be Wednesday, January 7, 2009 at 10 AM at Kernodle Funeral Home Chapel with burial in Barnishaw Cemetery in Pine Tree. Tombstone-Obituary: Horton-Obituary-Died on May 18,1899, at his home in this vicinity, after a long and tedious illness, Mr. Earl Nail, aged 73 years. Was born in Tennessee. Came to this county when very young and has resided here most of his life. Was laid to rest in the Barney Shaw (probably Barnishaw). He leaves to mourn him two sons, who found him a loving father and numerous friends who regret the loss of a Christian gentleman and true friend. For the past thirty three years he had been a consistent member of Bible Union church. While we tender our sincere sympathy to the bereaved family, we will say, grieve not, for Christ will claim his own at the appointed time. We can only find consolation by putting our trust in the Lord, Who giveth and Who taketh, but doeth all things well. A Friend. Shown as Alexander Irvin Nail on FindAGrave site and birthdate as Sep.20,1825. Goodspeed's Bio: Irving R. Nail owns one of the carefully cultivated farms of St. Francis County, Ark., it consisting of 120 acres, a greater portion of it being under the plow, and the general impression of the observer, is that thrift and prosperity prevail. He owes his success to no one, being thrown on his own resources at the age of thirteen, and though the prospect was not one to encourage one, he never grew despondent, but kept bravely on, with what success is already known. He was born in Tennessee in the year 1825, being the son of Andrew and Lucy, natives of Virginia and Kentucky, respectively. Mr. Nail came to St. Francis County in 1838 where he breathed his last a few years later. Irving R. Nail enlisted in the Confederate [p. 486] army in 1861 in Johnston's Company, Thirteenth Arkansas Regiment, participating in the battle of Belmont. He was shortly after discharged on account of illness, this ending his war career. He was married in 1863 to Amanda Raney, a daughter of Thomas and Jane Raney. The result of this union was four children: Martha J., William R., Dorinda and John C. Mrs. Nail died in August, 1877, and Mr. Nail remained a widower until January, 1881, when he took for his second wife Miss Nancy Cobb, whose father, W. M. Cobb, immigrated from South Carolina to Arkansas in 1855, having been born in 1825. Mr. and Mrs. Nail are members in high standing of the Baptist Church, to which the former lends his hearty support and influence. No Tombstone-Obituary: FC Times Newspaper-Forrest City, Ark.-Died Monday morning, at 11 o'clock, Nov.7,1887, of malarial fever, Mrs. T. I. Nail. She leaves a husband and four little ones to grieve. In her death the husband has lost a devoted wife and life companion, and these little ones their dearest friend. Truly it is very sad to think of these little children being left alone to grow up without a mother's elevating influences. The remains were taken to Desoto County, Mississippi, for interment Tuesday. Mrs. Tennie M. Nail was born Oct.14,1854 and was called from earth to heaven Nov.7,1887. A devoted wife, a fond, affectionate mother, a loving sister, a charitable neighbor and an unwavering Christian has left the trials, the troubles and tribulations of the church militant to reap the harvest in the church triumphant everlasting. (Note: She must have had children going by the Obituary) Shown here for full disclosure of known facts. Believe the Falkerson is Fulkerson based on people alive at the time. Marriage:Nail, J. or I. Orbison, Donna Ellis, Mrs.....1924/08/21.....2016/05/26

Tombstone with Joseph and Jonathan-Obituary: Donna Ellis Orbison, age 91, was born on August 21, 1924 to Owen and Christine Ellis of Pine Tree, Arkansas and died in Dallas, TX on May 26, 2016. She is preceded in death by her husband Joseph R. Orbison and son, Jonathan R. Orbison. Donna graduated from Wynne High School in 1942 and moved to Memphis, TN where she completed Business College. In World War II she joined the WAVES and served in the Navy reserves. She worked at Sears and Roebuck, Company in Memphis until she married Joe Orbison of Jonesboro, Arkansas in 1952. They lived in Corpus Christi, TX for 30 years and were active members of the First Christian Church.

While raising her family, she was a cosmetic consultant for Luzier, Inc. and lead the company in national or regional sales for several years. She was awarded international travel and a new car for her achievements. She was involved with the Girl Scouts of America, serving as troop leader for her daughters and then Den Mother for her son's Cub Scout troop. She also volunteered in various service and social organizations, including the Eastern Star, Beta Sigma Phi, the Little Theatre of Corpus Christi, and others. She and Joe thrived and survived in the boom/bust Texas oil industry and moved to Caldwell, TX in 1982 where they retired. After her husband's death, Donna moved to Austin, TX in 1996, where she once again made many strong friendships, as she did all her life. She had a life rich with wonderful friends, loving family, cooking, bridge and other social events. She was also a proud breast cancer survivor of over 31 years. After living in Austin for many years she moved to Grand Prairie, TX and more recently to the Memory Care unit of Juliette Fowler Communities in Dallas, TX. Donna is survived by her daughter Rev. Christal Orbison Fisher and husband Donald R. Postell of Grand Prairie, TX; daughter Dr. Diane Orbison Tyler and husband Larry W. Smith of Liberty Hill, TX; granddaughter Christine Fisher and husband Dr. Galen Wachtman of Austin, TX; granddaughter Laura Fisher Clark and husband Matthew Clark of Lafayette, CO; great grandchildren Grant, Luke and Annelise Wachtman and Theodore Clark; sister Shelby Ellis Ray and husband John R. own hand. Before shooting himself through the heart with a charge of buckshot from the automatic shotgun which he carried, he wrote in a confession in which he stated that he killed his former wife because he loved her better than anything else in the world. Williams also wrote in his confession that he had been driven to suicide after he had exhausted every effort and means of persuasion in his power to induce his wife to return to him without success. He also accused his wife of having robbed him and of being untrue and unfaithful to him. The confession was four pages of a 5 cent tablet. Talking over the long distance telephone from Colt, Bud Dorris said that Williams killed himself in the home of his son in law, Riley Ells. It is said that Williams had threatened the lives of Riley and his wife in addition to his ex-wife.

Tombstone-Picture-Obituary: Rev. William Edward Witcher, 68, met his Savior face to face on Monday, July 29th, 2013, when he died peacefully in his sleep at his home. He was born December 16th, 1944, to Clara and J. B. Witcher in Wynne, Arkansas. He was born again on October 31st, 1962, when he accepted Jesus as his personal Savior. He married Esther Grogan Witcher on June 16th, 1966. He is survived by Esther Witcher, his wife of 47 years, of Forrest City; his daughter, Andrea Brock and her husband Mike Brock of Forrest City; his three grandchildren, Josh, Jackson and Emma; his brother Terry Witcher of Indiana and his sisters Rachel Boruff, Judy Sarvela and Marilyn Qualls all of Michigan. Rev. William Witcher was the Pastor of Oak Hill Church of God. He preached his first sermon for that congregation on the last Sunday of July 1970, and he preached his final sermon for that congregation on the last Sunday of July 2013, exactly 43 years later. Oak Hill Church of God was the only church Rev. Witcher ever pastured and he dedicated his life of ministry to that precious family of God. Rev. Witcher was not only a pastor to Oak Hill Church of God, but he was also a pastor to the entire community. He loved Forrest City and saw Eastern Arkansas as his mission field. He was a man known for his love of people. He was always available to minister to those in need. To those who were hungry, he gave food; to those who were sick, he visited; and to those who were lost, he shared the gospel of Jesus Christ. In addition to his service and ministry to this community, he served as District Bishop more than 20 years and he served on numerous state leadership boards for the Church of God over the last 43 years. Rev. Witcher loved to preach the gospel more than anything. He loved to sing (even though he said he "couldn't carry a tune in a bucket"). He also loved antique cars and was a member of the Cross County Car Club. He enjoyed visiting the local coffee shops every day and his routine started with drinking coffee and visiting at Sawmill followed by breakfast and more visiting at McDonald's before he headed to his office at the church. Rev. Witcher also loved to work in his garden and to spend time with his three grandchildren. To say he will be greatly missed is an understatement. Funeral services for Rev. Witcher will be held Saturday, August 3, 2013 at 1:00 p.m. at the Oak Hill Church of God, with burial to follow at Barnishaw Cemetery.
