Tombstone-Picture-Grandmother-Notes: Rachel Cliff's death certificate says she was born Jan. 8, 1860. Her stone has 1867. It is obviously incorrect as her younger sister was born in 1865. She had to have been born before her. Her death certificate also appears to be wrong. She couldn't have been born in Jan 1860. Her brother was born only 7 months earlier in May 1859. The 1900 census has her birth as July 1862. She is 8 years old on the 1870 census, 17 years old on the 1880 census and 47 years old on the 1910 census. I recommend you change her birth to 1862 per the 1900 census, as it is likely correct, and indicate that her stone is wrong. Thanks to contributor # 47361780 May 2017

Fitzpatrick, Sarah E. Eldridge, Mrs. b. Aug. 5, 1849 d. Oct. 5, 1927

Tombstone-Obituary: Mrs. Sarah E. Eldridge Fitzpatrick died Wednesday night, Oct. 5, 1927, of last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Garnett Prewett. Mrs. Fitzpatrick's death was not unexpected, but came nevertheless as a great sorrow to her family. She had been ill for about seven years, and was practically confined to her bed for the past two years. Mrs. Fitzpatrick was born Aug. 7, 1849, and was reared in the county near Newcastle. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Eldridge, pioneer St. Francis County settlers. She was married on Apr. 10, 1872 to Thomas O. Fitzpatrick, and the first three years of their marriage was spent at Wittsburg, then the seat of Cross county, where Mr. Fitzpatrick was in business and editor of the Wittsburg Gazette. At the end of that time, Mr. and Mrs. Fitzpatrick came to the old home near Newcastle, where their children were born and reared, and where she has since made her home. Mrs. Fitzpatrick is survived by her husband, two daughters, Mrs. L. G. Landon of Windfall, Indiana, and Mrs. Garnett Prewett of Forrest City; two sons, Ernest Fitzpatrick of Chicago, Illinois, Lee Fitzpatrick of Colt, and nine grand children. Funeral services were conducted Sunday from Mrs. Prewett's home by Rev. Roberson, pastor of the Methodist church at Colt, and Rev. Wright of Widener. Interment was in the old Loughridge cemetery near Newcastle, where all of the deceased members of the family are interred. Mrs. Landon was in attendance at the funeral of her mother. The passing of Mrs. Fitzpatrick decreases the number of the few remaining early settlers of this county. But such is life, that all who are born must die. Forrest City Times-Herald Oct. 13, 1927

No Tombstone-Goodspeed's Bio of 1884: Thomas O. Fitzpatrick, a successful resident of St. Francis County, is of Scotch-Irish descent, his great-grandfather having been obliged to come to this country from Ireland for political causes. He struck for the liberty of his countrymen. Upon arriving in the United States in the forepart of the eighteenth century, he served in the Revolutionary War. His son, Edmund Fitzpatrick, (grandfather of our subject) took part in the War of 1812, in which he held the position of captain. He had a family of nine children. David Fitzpatrick, the father of Thomas O., was born in Charlotte County, Va., on February 19, 1813. He was twice married; first to Miss Clementine Walker, a native of Virginia, and next to Permelia Hargrove who was the mother of three children: Marietta (the wife of Rev. C. H. Ford), Isabella (wife of E. H. Sanders, of Little Rock) and Thomas O. David Fitzpatrick was engaged in speculating in real estate until the panic of 1837, when he was financially ruined, after which he followed farming in Arkansas. Thomas O. was born in Lauderdale County, Tenn., in April, 1849. He spent his younger days on the farm, and attended the common and high schools of his county, and also had the advantages of a private tutor. On his return from school he was appointed county surveyor of Cross County, which position he held, also giving his attention to teaching, until 1871. He then started the Wittsburg Gazette, the first paper published in that county, which he continued to operate until he was elected clerk of the circuit court, and in this capacity remained until the adoption of the new constitution in 1874, when he was again a candidate on the Republican ticket, but was beaten by seventy votes. Coming to St. Francis County he embarked in farming, and also erected a steam-gin, which has proven a very profitable enterprise. In April, 1872, Mr. Fitzpatrick was united in marriage to Miss Sallie E. Eldridge, and they have five children: Eola, Garnett, Ernest D., Kate and Garfield. In 1883 Mr. Fitzpatrick was appointed postmaster of Forrest City, holding that office until Cleveland's administration. In September, 1886, he was elected county clerk, and still discharges the duties of that position with satisfaction to the community, and with credit to himself. He has also been a candidate on the Republican ticket for State senator. He is a member of the I. O. O. F., K. of L., K. of H. and of the County Wheel. Lisa Hamilton submitted the above data from Goodspeed's Biography's, 1884- Page 158-See History of Cross County 1955 by Robert W. Chowning for history provided by him over the years on the early days of this area. He was on a boat on the St. Francis river when Nathan Bedford Forrest was bringing men and equipment to complete the railroad from Memphis to Little Rock, going thru the Crowley Ridge between Madison and Forrest City.

Tombstone with Charles Lee-Picture-Notes: Born January 28, 1915 to Jim Ethridge and Margaret E. McCreless. She had 3 children, Jimmy Lee Cofield, Kenneth M Cofield, and Nancy Catherine Cofield Cothorn. She was a hard working woman, chopping cotton and push mowing yards up until the summer before she died. She didnt like to be the center of attention and hated for people to buy her gifts. She was fiercely loyal and protective of her children and grandchildren. Despite only having a 3rd grade education, she loved to read. She often traveled to Alabama to visit her sister, Annie Mae, using her cotton chopping money to pay for the trip. Whats remarkabale is that this one, small, quiet woman had such an impact on so many. Stories of her will be passed around the dining table for generations.

Tombstone-Goodspeed's Bio-Obituary: Obituary: Nov.12,1887-FC Times Died Vital Lesca, at his residence near Colt Station, St. Francis Co., Ark., Nov.1,1887 of pneumonia. Deceased was about forty seven years of age. When a beardless boy, he bade farewell to his home in sunny France, the land of his birth, and sought a home in the wilds of America. Without friends or money, a stranger, far from home, and all that was dear to him, he commenced his career in the new world. Not in vain did he quit his native land. Hundreds of Americans will waft the sad news back across the great waters and tell Frenchmen they have lost a true and noble brother. A father to the orphan, a husband to the widow, a friend to the poor, never did the church or any charitable institution appeal to Vital Lesca in vain. If charity, a forgiving heart, truthfulness and honesty are essential to eternal happiness, then his must, in deed, be filled with joy. But alas! to art gone, true and noble friend. No more can we grasp thy willing hand, or hear the voice we loved as well. Our little village is draped in mourning and the dark shadows of sadness and despair has settled upon us. Never did statesmen, hero, or poet claim a warmer place in the hearts of their countrymen than did Vital Lesca, with those who knew him. He was confined to his bed about three weeks. During his entire illness he was calm and resigned, and when questioned about his hopes for the future, by his loving wife, who would close his hand together and a pleasant, happy smile would light up his countenance. To the loving wife we would say, dry those tears of sadness, for thy husband now treats in the brighter fairer land. He was buried at the Loughridge grave yard by the Knights of Honor, of which order he was a member in good standing. The procession formed at the late residence of deceased and perhaps three hundred people followed the remains to their last resting place. Resolution of Respect On Nov.19,1887 for Vital Lesca by Taylor's Creek Lodge 2927 by J. W. Aven, O. P. Wolff, J. E. Vick. Nov.12,1887 Goodspeed Biography of J. L. Adare-This is about one of Vital Lesca's early acquaintances: J. L. Adare, a native of Northern Alabama, is a son of Samuel W. and Mary J. (Freeze) Adare, who also came originally from that State, the father being of French descent, and the mother of Irish ancestry. J. L. Adare assisted his father on the farm until twenty years of age, when he was engaged in clerking for about four years. In 1879 he came to Arkansas and located in St. Francis County, gave his attention to farming the first year, and the following year entered the employ of Mr. Vital Lesca, as clerk, and is now at the head of the business. Mr. Adare was born in Madison County, Ala., on December 27, 1850, and was married on September 8, 1889, to Mrs. Delia Lesca, widow of his former employer, and a daughter of Stephen Snowden, a native of Tennessee. Mr. Adare is a member of the K. of H., and is a well known citizen and highly respected. Patterson, John C., Captain b. 1811 d. Mar. 31, 1903

No Tombstone-Obituary: Death of Capt. John Patterson-News reached the city Wednesday, of the death of Capt.John Patterson, the day previous, March 31,1903, at his home near Shell Lake. The Captain was well known throughout the county as a hunter of note, having killed more big game than perhaps any man in the state. His age, how long he has lived in St. Francis county, and from whence he came is unknown. He reared a family in the deep wilds of the bottom country, whose only unhappiness was the encroachment of civilization. He knew the bottom country as if it were laid out in streets, and could go to any point the darkest of nights. His pride were his dogs-a rack of deer and bear hounds, and the constant use of saddle and rifle, made him equal to Buffalo Bill. Genial and accomodating, he was in demand with hunting parties, who will miss him. Fear was a stranger to him. It is related of him that on one occasion he camped for the night, and was attacked by three panthers-a female and two grown cubs. He shot one, and killed the other two with clubbed rifle. His encounters with wild beasts would fill a volume. Yet he was modest in telling them. Notwithstanding the wild life of Capt. Patterson, he had many traits of character which showed that his heart was in the right place, and many friends will regret his demise. Peace to his ashes. Based on the following: Uncle" John Patterson, off the Military road, was a visitor to the city Friday. He is a typical backwoods pioneer, 86 years of age, and has made his home in the swamps since 1858. He is yet as agile as the average young man, an expert horseman, an quick, sure shot, and is a stranger to fear of any wild animal that roams the forest, and is a staunch friend of the levee. 6-4-1897-He was born in 1811, and came to St. Francis county in 1858. <http://www.argenweb.net/stfrancis/New/Bear.html>- Mr. Scott Bond tells this excellent "Bear Story" in his book."A year after the foregoing incident I had a new experience. I had never seen a wild bear. My corn was planted on black, sandy loam land. It was being destroyed and torn down by something, I did not know what. The ground was so loose I could not tell from the footprints whether it was horse, mule, cow or what, that was doing the damage. The land was very rich. There were several stumps standing about. I thought it was coons that were destroying my corn. One moonlit night I took my gun and seated myself on the fence alongside the field. There was a slight breeze stirring the blades of corn. I thought I heard a coon that had climbed up on a stalk of corn and broke it down. I slipped off the fence, cocked my gun and stooped, looking beneath the blades of corn I saw one of these stumps within fifty feet of me I squatted, looking for the coon, and all at once what I thought was a black stump dropped down and I never heard such running and threshing in my life. When I realized it was a bear, I was really so weak I could hardly lower the hammer of my gun. I straightened up and I heard another bear running. When they reached the fence on the far side of the field they tore down the Whole side of the fence getting out of the field. From this I learned that it was Mr. Bear that was devouring my corn. The next day I saddled my horse and went across the river about seven miles to the home of Mr. John Patterson, the great bear hunter, who had a fine pack of hounds. Mr. Patterson said it would be two or three days before the bear would return to my field, and that he would be over to my place in a day or so, and stay over-night; and strike the bear's trail before day. According to his promise he came. About two hours before day, the bear-hunter asked me if I knew the exact place where the bears crossed the slough. I told him I did. He sent another man with me, telling us to get down next to the water and he would take his dogs into the field, and when the bear came to the water we could shoot him as he swam across. We started in a skiff, but got hung on a snag. When we got to the appointed place the bear was already in the lake. We made three shots at him without apparent effect. The hounds followed the bear across and in a few minutes there was as sweet music as I ever heard, from a chorus of dogs. They chased the bear three and a half miles to the St. Francis River and across it. They overhauled the bruin about ten o'clock and captured him about seven miles from my field. Mr. Patterson said the bear would tip the scales at 500 pounds. I did not have the pleasure of helping to capture the bear, but I certainly had my fill of him at the dinner table. I learned the excellency of bear meat and that one could not possibly eat enough to hurt himself. Mr. Patterson was broadly known as the "bear chaser" of the St. Francis bottoms, not only took pleasure in bear hunting, but also made plenty of money. He usually killed from fifty to seventy-five every winter. The whole St. Francis basin was at that time full of all kinds of game. Wild pigeons were so numerous that they would darken the sky when they passed. No oak or walnut had been cut, hence mast would be found washed up in enormous piles along the streams. Tombstone-Picture-Obituary: Capt. R. W. Peevey died at his home near Newcastle, in Johnson township, Wednesday night, Aug. 22, 1906, of old age and general debility. He was in his 80th year, and had lived in this county since 1871, coming from Alabama. He represented the county in the legislature for one term, and for many years was one of the staunchest and hardest working democrats in the State. He was a good man and honest, and besides his family, consisting of a wife and four sons, viz.: Jim, Hall, Luther, and Will, and a sister, Mrs. Baxter, formerly of this city, leaves many sorrowing friends. He was a Mason, Knight of Honor, member of Camp 923 United Confederate Veterans, and a member of the Methodist church, being a leader in the Sunday school work of his neighborhood for many years. His remains were interred in the Loughridge cemetery yesterday afternoon, under auspices of Rising Star Lodge. Peace to his soul. SEE BIO. Hon. R. W. Peevey, farmer, stock raiser, and one of the prominent old settlers of St. Francis County, owes his nativity to Alabama, being a son of W. H. and J. A. (Childers) Peevey, originally from Georgia and Tennessee, respectively, and of Irish descent. The parental grandparents of our subject came to this country shortly after the Revolutionary War. R. W. Peevey was born January 8, 1827, and was the fourth son in a family of seven children. He spent his boyhood [p.488] days on his father's farm, and before his twentieth birthday was married to Miss Nellie A. Collier, who died in 1850, leaving three children, two still living: James J. and Emma J. (wife of W. H. Fogg), both in this county. In 1862 Mr. Peevey enlisted in the Confederate army and served in Col. Robinson's regiment, being elected captain of his company at starting out, and in May, 1863, he was promoted to major. He participated in the battles of Vicksburg, Baton Rouge, Corinth and a number of others. After the war he engaged in farming in Madison County, Ala., until 1873, when he came to Arkansas and located in St. Francis County, where he bought his present farm. In October, 1859, he married Miss Louisa Curry. She died in August, 1878, having borne seven children, and of these four survive: Thomas Elbert, Robert H., William H. and

Luther B. Mr. Peevey married his third wife, Mary J. Dew, in January, 1880. He is a prominent Democrat, and has ably served his county in the State legislature, to which he was elected in 1876. He also held the office of justice of the peace for several terms, and is still filling that position. A member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, he is also connected with the Masonic fraternity. Thompson, Clara Fay Smith Worley, Mrs. b. Oct. 23, 1927 d. Apr. 18, 2012

Tombstone-Picture-Obituary: Clara Fay Smith Thompson was born on October 23, 1927, in Sand Slue, of Cross County, Arkansas, to Lee Worley and Josie May Thomas Worley. Clara Fay was welcomed home by her heavenly father on Wednesday, April 18, 2012, at the age of 84. Clara Fay Worley married Charles David Smith in March of 1942. Seven children were born to that union, Lola Larry Charlotte, Sharon, David, Chris and Belinda Smith. On September 8, 1967, Clara Fay Smith and Elmer "Bo" Thompson were married. Proverbs 31: 10-31 "Who can find a virtuous woman? For her price is far above rubies." This passage of scripture describes Clara perfectly. She lived a humble life, rising early, working and sacrificing to provide for her family. She had a talent for sewing and used that talent to benefit her family and others in the community. Family was the most important thing in her life, next to God. She was never happier than when she was surrounded by family. She loved her children and grandchildren unconditionally and sacrificially. She was tough as nails and soft as silk and although she endured unbelievable things in her lifetime she never allowed it to defeat her, but instead allowed God to make her stronger for it all. She was altogether a very admirable woman and a true inspiration to all who knew and loved her. Mrs. Thompson is preceded in death by her parents, her husband Elmer "Bo' Thompson, first husband, Charles Smith, son Larry Rue Smith, brother, Same Worley, sisters, Lula May Frost and Lorine Clegg; grandson Stephen Thompson and great grandsons, Nathan Thompson and James Brock. Survivors are her children, Lola Ponder and husband Elmer of Colt; Charlotte Barnett of Wynne; Sharon Hillis and husband Gary of Proctor, David Smith and wife Evelyn of Crestview, FL; Christopher Smith of Santa Rosa, CA., Belinda Hollis and husband Bobby of Cherokee Village; step-sons, Eugene Thompson and wife Linda of Ardmore, OK; Carl Thompson and wife Lee of Bay Minette, AL; Billy Thompson and wife Karen of Forrest City; brother, Edward Worley and sister, Dora Draughon and 21 grandchildren and 50 great grandchildren. Funeral services were at Ridgewood Baptist Church in Caldwell with burial in Loughridge Cemetery. Kernodle Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Tombstone-Obituary: An unfortunate killing occurred just over the county line, beyond Johnson township, Wednesday evening, July 3,1912. Will Smith killed Jim Webb under circumstances which may be considered justifiable homicide. Both the men were best of friends and Webb was a frequent visitor to the home of Smith. When he came Wednesday, he was so intoxicated, that Mrs. Smith told him to leave. Webb ran into Smith on the road home, and was told he was always welcome when sober. Later, Webb showed up with a gun and threatened to kill all hands, and when told to stop, he continued forward when Smith shot him. Probate Dated 19121127 Value $1,355.00 Adm:E.A. Wolff, Oscar Presley, Sheriff b. May 8, 1852 d. Jun. 27, 1912

No Tombstone-Note: Wolff or Wolfe-Using information from Loyd N. Sybert on family in 2018, Thanks Loyd-Obituary: Death of Oscar Presley Wolff - Esteemed Citizen Succumbs to Tuberculosis After Long and Painful Illness. Funeral Today. Oscar Presley Wolff, one of the best known citizens of St. Francis County and a gentleman who was greatly esteemed by a legion of good friends, died yesterday morning at his home in this city and was buried this morning about 11 o'clock in the Lotheridge graveyard in Johnson township. Deceased was sixty years of age the 8th day of last May, and since the spring of 1908 when he, in company with his friend; Mr. S. M. Blalock, of Colt, narrowly escaped being asphyxiated in a room at the Fransioia hotel in Memphis, has gone steadily downward physically. For 5 or 6 months past; deceased had been in such a frail and delicate state of health, that he had not been able to leave his home and the greater portion of this time the sufferer was continuously confined to his bed. O. P. Wolff was a native of St. Francis county, having been born at the old family homestead, near Taylor's Creek, or later on named Colt, in Telico townwhip, on May 8, 1852. Until the death of his father, he enjoyed the advantages of being able to attend the subscription schools of his neighborhood. After the demise of his father, he went to Texas where he worked as a "Cowboy" for the next five years. Returning home he entered into farming on the old homestead for seven years. But in 1882, he was employed by Mr. Vital Lesca as a bookkeeper and clerk. In 1883, he was appointed station agent at Colt for the Iron Mountain Railroad. He was a brave and fearless man and for quite a number of years was a prominent figure in the public life of our city and county. At the time of his death he was and for the past six or eight year had served the levee board as tax collector of this county. Prior to his election as collector for the levee board, he held the office of city marshal of Forrest City for several terms and the fact has always been conceded that he served his constituents faithfully and well, and made this city one of the best police officers it ever had. In the performance of duty Oscar Wolff was ever true and loyal and the many friend here with whom he was closely associated and who knew him best, will mourn him deeply and by all he will be sorely missed. Deceased was married on Nov. 10, 1880 to Mrs. Fannie Gurley, by D. S. Smith, Minister, to which union two children were added, viz., Annie E. Wolff Logston (age 23 in 1910), Edward P. (age 21 in 1910), (At the time of the Goodspeed's Biography) the former now being the wife of Mr. Paul Logston, of Little Rock, all of whom survive him. Oscar Wolff was a kind, loving and provident husband and father and the grief of the members of his family is pitiable and beyond the depiction of words. The funeral arrangements include the shipment of the remains to Colt, via., the Iron Mountain this morning, where it was met by the hearse and a large concourse of friends and conveyed thence to the Lotheridge cemetery, where the last sad rites were performed by the Rev. Father Heringer of the Catholic church. The Times joins the numerous friends of the deceased's family in condolences and heartfelt sympathy. Second wife was Fannie Gurley whom he married Nov.10,1880. Mr. Wolff was a member of the Knights of Pythias and also the Knights of Honor. In the 1880 Census, Oscar P. Wolff age 28 single, as boarding with the family of Charles and Mary McDonald, in Smith Township, Cross Co, Ark.. He is listed as a laborer, most likely working for Mr. McDonald. The date of the census was June 29, 1880. In 1888 he was Postmaster at Colt. In 1900 Census, he is residing in Forrest City, and was the City Marshall. Listed in the household were his wife, Fannie, his son Edward and his two daughters, Annie and Lloyd U. Another 23 years old female, Manda Moore, in the same household listed as a daughter, married three years, and occupied as a school teacher. It is believed that she is a daughter of Fannie and in a previous marriage. In the 1910 Census, Oscar is 57, Fannie 55, as renting at NSN Lollard St., married for 29 years, Fannie had 15 children of which 11 survived. Children at home: Annie J., 23, Edward P. 21, and Lloyd U. 14. Oscar was employed as Tax Collector. Ed P was a bill poster. All children were single.

Goodspeed's Biography: In 1848, O. P. Wolff, Sr., and his wife Annie E. (Russell) Wolff, came to Arkansas from Philadelphia, their native home, and settled on the present site of the town of Colt, which he purchased from W. M. Taylor, consisting of 160 acres, with four acres of it cleared. Mr. Wolff improved the rest and bought adjoining lands, and in 1870, at the time of his death, was the owner of 600 or 700 acres. Soon after arriving here he opened up a stock of general merchandise, and as settlements were few and far between he had a large trade and enjoyed a profitable patronage, which he continued for some years after the war. The place was known as Taylor's Creek, by which name it was called until 1882, then being changed to Colt, after the railroad contractor who built the railroad through. Mr. Wolff was twice married, By his first union he was the father of two children, our subject, Oscar Presley, Jr., the only one living, and Joseph A.; and by his second marriage there were three children: Frisk B., Cornelia W., and Sallie J. (wife of J. H. Hancock of Wynne). In the 1850 Census had Oscar P., Sr., wife Annie, in L'Anguille Township. Also in the household was Laurence R. Frisk, a 40 years old farmer, and Eliza Russell, a 40 years old from Tennessee (Perhaps they were partners). Oscar P. Wolff, Jr., the subject of this sketch, was born in St. Francis County, May 8,1852, and up to the time the death of his father enjoyed the advantages of attending schools of his neighborhood. After the senior Wolff's demise he went to Texas and was engaged for the following five years as a "cowboy," on the western plains. Returning home he entered into farming on the old homestead for seven years, but in 1882 was employed by Mr. Lesca as book-keeper and clerk. In 1883 he was appointed station agent at Colt for the Iron Mountain Railroad, which position he still holds. November 10,1880, Mr. Wolff married Miss Fannie Gurley. They are the parents of two children: Annie E. and Edward P. Mr.Wolff is a member of the Knights of Pythias and also the Knights of Honor. He is a Democrat in politics, and a well known citizen of Colt. Note: in 1870 Census Fannie Williams was living with Oscar's parents, probably Fannie Gurley.

Tombstone with Gail-Obituary: James Eugene Woods, 71, was born to James Edward and Marguerite Gordy Woods on May 25, 1944. He entered God's Kingdom of Heaven on August 13, 2015. He graduated from Forrest City Arkansas High School in 1962. He attended Centenary College in Shreveport, LA, Washington University in St. Louis, MO, and finished at the University of Memphis. Gene worked in the Trust Department at First Tennessee Bank before joining Wilkinson and Snowden, Inc. in 1971, now Colliers International Memphis Branch. He was with the company until his death, and he served as Treasurer, President, and Chairman of the Board at Colliers. Honored to have been in the Society of Industrial and Office Realtors (SIOR), Gene served as a Regional Vice President and as President of the Memphis Chapter. He also served on the Board of Directors for the Memphis Area Association of Realtors (MAAR) for two terms, was awarded the Presidential Award in 1992, and served as President in 1994. As a man of faith, Gene was on the Board of and was a Lay Director for the Emmaus Community. He was also a member of the Board for the Salvation Army for 16 years, often locating vacant warehouses for the Angel Tree Christmas Gift Center. As a former member of Calvary Episcopal Church in downtown Memphis, he was a Senior Warden of the Vestry and a soloist for the Calvary Choir. He later was Chairman of the Diaconate at Second Presbyterian Church. Now at St. Mary's Cathedral, he was recently a Chairman of the Stewardship Committee and also served on the Finance Committee as Treasurer. These are the service-oriented positions that Gene held with a willing and caring heart. However, the things that we as family and friends will remember and hold onto are the love he had for others, the kindnesses that go unsung but are cherished by the recipients, the loyalty he had for his business family, and the integrity that was the cornerstone of his character. He died at home in Highlands, North Carolina, with his beloved wife Gail and his two sons Peter and Taylor. Due to increasing illness, it was unclear if he would be strong enough to return to his home that he loved in the mountains. Once his medical team felt he was strong enough to return, he traveled with his family throughout the night to live out his final days on earth there. What a blessing it has been for the four of us to be together even at the end: the four of us were together, and we saw him comfortable and at peace until his journey home. Visitation will be 5-7 p.m. Wednesday, August 26th at Canale Funeral Directors, 2700 Union Ave Extended, Memphis, TN 38112. The Celebration of his Life will be 10:30 a.m. Thursday, August 27th
